

Newark Historic Trail Information Sheet

• The Newark Historic Trail is located in Newark, Delaware. It is 9 miles long, offers a walking tour of residential, commercial, educational, and historical areas of Newark.

There is a printable brochure with detailed directions available

There is also a printable map of the area with the trail marked out and the sites to visit numbered.

For those who complete the hike, a patch designed by the Eagle Scout who created the trail is available containing the City of Newark logo.

• Conveniently located a few miles from the trailhead is White Clay State Park, with accommodations for primitive camping with a portable toilet and potable water.

The park office is located at:

880 New London Road Newark, DE 19711 Phone # (302) 368-6900

Office hours are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

(closed on weekends and holidays)

If camping, reservations should be made in advance.

The park is open from 8 a.m. to sunset; there is a fee to enter.

• This Trail follows natural landmarks and roads, but it is occasionally missing sidewalks.

Depending on the time of year, the trail roads have varying states of traffic.

• It is strongly recommended that youth members under 21 should be under adult supervision for the trail, with at least 2-deep leadership being in effect for the hike.

• Scouting units are asked to hike in Field Dress uniforms
